I have an array of n elements that have a group_by field $array = array(array(id => $group_by, name => $group_by), ... array(id => $group_by, name => $group_by)); I then want to group them by a group_by field. I need to group them on the element with the same group_by value. I am now doing it by looping through the array and creating a view and rendering it. $view = new view(); $view->name = $group_by; $

 The series "Dredd" at one time got everything to become a cult. First of all, this is a stellar cast: Sam Witwer, Karl Urban, Lily Cole. In addition, this topic is also a post-apocalyptic future, which, in our opinion, should have turned out very well if the scriptwriters had not gone crazy.
