Free Download DC - Unlocker 2 Client 1.00.0857 Cracked.Q: preg_replace a word between {} I have some url like this : I would like to replace {id} by a variable. The result I have to get is : I have this result : Here is what I have tried so far : $replacement = preg_replace('/{(d+)}/', "${product_id}", $contents); But I have this result : So I am only replacing the start of the string by ${product_id} A: Ok, got a way by myself, if anyone is interested. I have used DOMDocument. Here is the function : function replace( $content, $pattern, $replacement ){ $pattern_size = array_filter(preg_split('/{(.+?)}/', $pattern), function($x) {return strlen($x)>0;}); $pattern_size_len = count($pattern_size); $replacement_size = array_filter(preg_split('/{(.+?)}/', $replacement), function($x) {return strlen($x)>0;}); $replacement_size_len = count($replacement_size); $size = max($pattern_size_len, $replacement_size_len) + 1; $pos = 0; $content = preg_replace('#'.$pattern.'{(.+?)'.$pattern.'#','${1}', $content); $pos = strpos( $content, $pattern ); while( $pos!= -1 ){ $content = substr
